Long Island Iced Tea

Robert "Rosebut" Butt claims to have invented Long Island Iced Tea as an entry in a contest to create a new mixed drink with Triple Sec in 1972 while he worked at the Oak Beach Inn on Long Island, New York.

Bed Lounge Iced Tea

We use the basic ingredients of an Iced Tea cocktail for our signature drink. We pair the exotic and sweet lychee liqueur with rose extract to satisfy even the most demanding cocktail gourmet.

BASED ON RUM

Mojito

Cuba's oldest cocktail is superbly refreshing and is one of the world's best-selling drink

Caipirinha

You surely know Cachaca or Brazilian rum with crushed limes, sugar cane and crushed ice. But did you know that in Sao Paulo, they counted this delicacy among very strong medicines against flu?

Daiquiri Classic/Frozen

We'll be happy to prepare this new classic for you as a frozen drink with the fruit of your choice: classic lime, strawberry or raspberry.

Piña Colada

Long ago, pirate Roberto Confresi needed to boost the morale of his crew but didn't have enough rum. So he mixed it with coconut and pineapple juice. This was the beginning of the creamy Caribbean delicacy.
